GREENPOINT TECHNOLOGIES IS PRESENTED WITH THE "SPIRIT OF QUALITY" AWARD

January 8, 2008

Kirkland, WA

Greenpoint Technologies, Inc. (GTI) on December 12, 2007 was presented with a joint "Spirit of Quality" award, teaming with Boeing's Derivative Airplane Programs (DAP) group on the Self Defense System (SDS) Certification project. The team worked together to identify improvements to support the challenging redelivery schedule for the C-40B modification program. As a result, the team projected an estimated twenty-four (24) flow day savings signifying their commitment to teamwork and quality.
