Greenpoint Technologies Celebrates Annual Teamwork Award

Kirkland, WA – April 17, 2013 – Greenpoint Technologies, a premier VIP completions center for Boeing Business Jets \(BBJ\), celebrates its annual Teamwork Award and recognizes the 2013 winner, IT Senior Network Administrator Carlos Soto.

“Teamwork is the cornerstone value at Greenpoint. It is so fundamental that it is a corporate value, an employee core competency and is at the heart of our annual focus ‘Winning through swift, coordinated execution’. Teamwork is the key reason Greenpoint delivers projects on time, on budget and secures new opportunities,” declares Greenpoint CEO and President Scott Goodey.

The award allows employees to nominate fellow coworkers who embody this value. Soto acknowledges his greatest lessons and training on teamwork came from his deployment with the United States Marine Corps early in his career. A coworker describes, “I don’t know anyone more deserving of this award; he consistently sacrifices himself for the good of the team. He undertakes assignments with enthusiasm. If the day is challenging, he builds a positive team spirit by using humor to brighten the mood. He even resolved an issue on Sunday during the Super Bowl.”

As the award winner Soto receives a $1,000 check, a trophy and has his name added to the Teamwork plaque in Greenpoint’s main lobby.
