Greenpoint Technologies Gives Back to a Local Homeowner

Kirkland, WA – April 30, 2013 – Greenpoint Technologies, a premier VIP completions center for Boeing Business Jets \(BBJ\), gives back to a local homeowner in support of the annual Spring Rebuilding Day (also known as National Rebuilding Day) this past Saturday, April 27th.

2013 marks Greenpoint's 6th year participating in the Rebuilding Together event. Rebuilding Together Seattle is a charitable organization that repairs homes at no cost to homeowners struggling with limited income; particularly the elderly, disabled, families with children and veterans. A team of 80 employees, family members and friends spent the day replacing kitchen appliances, painting, cleaning, finishing the basement and completing well-needed yard work.

“It’s an honor to serve our community and its one of our favorite events. A full day’s work generates a great impact on a home in need of repair. Seeing our values of fun, teamwork and community come together for a homeowner’s happiness is truly rewarding,” affirms Scott Goodey Greenpoint President and CEO.
