Greenpoint Technologies Delivers First BBJ 747-8 Aeroloft™ Installation

Kirkland, WA – August 28, 2012 – Greenpoint Technologies, a premier VIP completions center for Boeing Business Jets \(BBJ\), announces the delivery of their first Aeroloft™ installation on a BBJ 747-8 aircraft.

Greenpoint Technologies continues on-time deliveries and celebrates with their customer at a private ceremony on August 27, 2012. The delivery at Boeing’s Global Transport & Executive Systems (GTES) facility in Wichita, KS marks an important milestone for Greenpoint, who first announced the prototype program at the European Business Aviation Conference & Exhibition (EBACE) in 2009. Greenpoint has worked with The Boeing Company for over a decade developing multiple solutions for VIP and Heads-of-State clients. The Aeroloft™ is Greenpoint’s latest innovation resulting from the companies’ collaboration.

“Our close relationship with Boeing allows us to develop state of the art solutions for our VIP customers by providing them with the best in luxury, utility, and safety,” affirms Greenpoint CEO and President Scott Goodey. “Our core business is designing and manufacturing unique interior solutions,” continued Goodey, “and the Aeroloft™ is a perfect example of engineering collaboration resulting from customer demand.”

The Aeroloft™ was developed specifically for the BBJ 747-8 and boasts eight private sleeping berths in the aft, upper section of the aircraft providing a comfortable rest area during flight. Greenpoint has two more Aeroloft™ installations scheduled for delivery in 2012.
