GREENPOINT TECHNOLOGIES HOSTS FIRST SUPPLIER PARTNERSHIP CONFERENCE

October 5, 2007

Kirkland, WA

Greenpoint Technologies, Inc (GTI) hosted its first annual Supplier Partnership Conference on September 11th- 12th, 2007. Over sixty-five (65) representatives from thirty-three (33) companies attended the two-day event. The conference focus was to improve the supplier/customer relationship by meeting on-time deliveries, within budget, while ensuring high quality standards are maintained. The supplier representatives wholeheartedly endorsed this initiative and look forward to working more closely with and supporting GTI in their vision of Focus, Adapt and Deliver. "This initiative is focused on how GTI and its suppliers can better support our mutual customers and their completions," states Executive Vice President, Sloan Benson.
