Greenpoint Exhibits at EBACE Booth #S045

Kirkland, Wash. – 6 May 2015 – Greenpoint Technologies, a Zodiac Aerospace Company, exhibits at the European Business Aviation Conference and Exhibition (EBACE), in Geneva, Switzerland, 19th May through 21st May. The booth will feature Greenpoint's award-winning Azure 787-9 VIP interior design as well as display Zodiac Aerospace's VIP services and components.

Greenpoint Technologies is completing two VIP 787-8s with the first delivery scheduled for next year. The 787 aircraft creates a platform for stunning designs and the latest technology. Interior requests include electric sensor doors, organic light-emitting diode (OLED) digital walls, hand-painted ceiling coves and sculpted furniture. Greenpoint's comprehensive 787 engineering experience is ready for the next completion contract.

In addition, the VIP product line of Zodiac Aerospace will be showcased at EBACE. Zodiac Aerospace supplies among others, seats, galleys and galley carts, water and waste systems, oxygen systems, cabin lighting, as well as connectivity and inflight entertainment options for business jet clients. The company's vast commercial interior offerings provide the VIP industry reputable alternatives. Zodiac is supplying various systems and seats on Greenpoint's 787-8s.
