Kirkland, Wash. – 25 March 2019 – Greenpoint Technologies exhibits at the Asian Business Aviation Conference and Exhibition (ABACE) in Shanghai, China, 16 through 18 April at booth #C713, showcasing the new Boeing Business Jet (BBJ) 777X V-VIP Lotus interior concept designed by Greenpoint.

The BBJ 777X Lotus interior concept achieves a contemporary, multifunctional design with luxuries expected at the highest end of private aircraft travel. Greenpoint's Design Team drew inspiration from Asian Pacific cultures, incorporating celestial and organic elements. The result is a spacious, reflective and welcoming interior featuring a lounge, media room, library, private suite, relaxation room and luxurious master suite.

Greenpoint's award-winning BBJ 787-9 Azure interior design concept will also be displayed in 1/20th scale (model). The Azure features an expansive lounge accentuated by the BBJ 787's open architecture and large windows, a formal dining/conference room, a master suite with private office, two guest suites and a spa-serenity room. The Azure interior received the Society of British International Design (SBID) Award in 2015 and the 17th Annual Northwest Design Exotic Retreats Award in 2017.
